1 If challenging the similarities
2 of the cases in question, The Mozilla
3 Foundation must file a notice of related 4 cases. Must indicate a brief factual
5 statement, must include all related facts 6 The notice will be filed at the 7 time the second case is open. This 8 would be considered the first case in 9 question. Notice of related cases were 10 never filed by the defendant. Res Judicata, 11 similarities to other cases, Identity of claims, 12 and any other comparisons should not be 13 allowed.

15
16 The Federal Government requested
17 an interface back in late 2019 the first 18 ever prototype was tested. The Fed Gov
19 needed someone to test it, so they ended 20 up with a Gov employee utilizing the 21 resources of Mozilla.org.

26 I touched bases with Mozilla.org
27 back in december of 2019 to try 28 a new browser. The Firefox browser

1 and involvement with there ISP
2 Netscape. This was the worst
3 mistake of my life, and anybody else
4 who did the same thing. This person
5 I call the Internet resource 6 manager, because being a part of a 7 protection program for employees and with 8 granted immunity there is no way I 9 could find out what his name is.
10 Especially have to deal with no
11 Internet / and crashed personal devices
12 for almost 5 years now. In fact 13 this person has destroyed 6 devices 14 in the last 2 weeks just trying to 15 prepare and file this opposition to the 16 motion. Cris Ridder does not believe 17 this person exists, the truth is 18 The Mozilla Foundation does not want 19 to be held accountable for the actions
20 plus all the damage caused from him.
21 I spoke with the FBI a couple
22 weeks ago, and told them everything.
23 Said this person is attacking me 24 in the worst way and has taken my 25 life away from me and can't 26 get it back. The FBI went to 27 visit the internet resource manager 28 the next day. The FBI is currently involved in this issue. Just waiting for a response from them so I can get his full legal name.

I will be filing a civil harassment restraining order against him. Getting his info in the CLETS system is the only way to ~~stop~~ stop a psycho path person like this that has an attitude problem. The police can put a warrant out for his arrest when I report ongoing civil harassment.
Also, I will be filing Criminal charges against this person. Attempted murder charges are probably in order for him. I will be filing another case against mozilla.org for all the licences applied to me for no particular purpose. 4 additional licences with no opt-out or way to get out of the chaos mozilla brings to the table.
Also, filing charges against the United States Federal Government for the current and ongoing hardships and life burden he just will not stop. The mozilla Foundation and everyone in support of mozilla's actions.
These people are pathetic cowards that hide behind patent litigation.

1 when Mozilla apply's a public lisencc
2 to you, they create a copyright issue.
3 They put you in the public API,
4 so they can modify your source
5 code for all the wrong reasons
6 effecting your everyday Life routine
7 plus everything you do. Essential 8 claims is what they say, saying
9 you are holding key information 10 regarding one of there patents and 11 will not disclose the information.
12 with patent protection resources
13 at hand Mozilla throws the book
14 at you. No opt-out, forcing software 15 on you that is buggy and does not 16 work, saying it is part of there 17 Location services, it's at there 18 discretion wether or not they let you 19 out of this evil hatefull mess
20 that nobody can live with. To this 21 day almost five years mozilla plays
22 childish games with internet connections
23 and will not allow you to have a 24 phone or PC to make calls and send 25 messages. What they do to people
26 is Criminal and against the law.
27
28

1 everything I'm explaining is 100%
2 true and correct. There is nothing 3 frivolous or fancy at all about these 4 hateful acts. A frivolous or malicious
5 remark is purely opinion. Someone 6 stating this is hard to believe or 7 not happening should look at all
8 the cases in the Northern District
9 for coercive control and controlling people 10 completely against their will towards 11 The Mozilla foundation. All the 12 death threats Mozilla gets from 13 people because of what they make 14 their employees do to others.
15 death threats to them are like candy
16 bars to those people. The Foundation 17 is known by so many to have 18 the nickname (scum of the web)
19 Not the picture I would be trying

1 Exhibit A will be copies of 2 pages from the defendants
3 motion. The Mozilla Foundation claims
4 these copies are correct and true.
5 They are not, so I am supplying 6 some copies to the court to 7 prove that the defendants 8 motion should be removed from 9 this case entirely. Since they waited 10 till the last day to file, it left 11 the defendant no time for correction.
12

13 Exhibit B will be copies of 14 the bill of lading (ship to info) 15 and the envelope addressed to 16 someone other than myself. The 17 defendant sent those documents to 18 my address but addressed to whom.
19 Nobody knows. I just know
20 those documents also do not belong
21 or have a place in this court

Exhibit A

On May 15, 2024, Plaintiff filed a Complaint and a Request to Proceed In Forma Pauperis. (ECF Nos. 1, 3.) Plaintiff labels the case as an action for "Patent Infringement." (ECF No. 1 at 1.) Defendant allegedly "has taken away all access to the internet, including the public library" and "shuts down and crashes all personal devices and PC." (Id. at 2.) Defendant also allegedly "merged [Plaintiff's] source code with [his] father's] source code, so [Defendant] could continue controlling [Plaintiff] and crashing [his] devices and taking away all internet access." (Id. at 3.) As a result, Plaintiff allegedly cannot look for work, and four years of his life have been taken. (Id.) Defendant allegedly "block[ed] HR department links, corrupt[ed] [Plaintiff's] devices, then shut them down. This is all a game to them." (Id.) Plaintiff seeks access to the internet and damages. (Id. at 4-5.)

Because Plaintiff seeks to proceed in forma pauperis, the Court has reviewed the Complaint to determine whether the action is frivolous or malicious; fails to state a claim upon which relief may be granted; or seeks monetary relief against a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B). As explained below, the Complaint is dismissed without leave to amend.

First, the Complaint is frivolous because it is duplicative of a Complaint that previously was dismissed as frivolous. See Cato v. United States, 70 F.3d 1103, 1105 n.2 (9th Cir. 1995) (complaint is frivolous if it repeats previously litigated claims). The Court dismissed a highly similar Complaint in Case No. 8:24-cv-00850-CJC-ADS.

Second, the Complaint is factually frivolous. When read together, Plaintiff's allegations of a years-long scheme to control and block his devices, as part of "a game," are "clearly baseless" or "fanciful." Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25, 32-33 (1992). In that circumstance, the Court may "pierce the veil of the complaint's factual allegations" and "is not bound, as it usually is when making a determination based solely on the pleadings, to accept without question the truth of the plaintiff's allegations." Id. at 32; see also Bator v. State of Hawai'i, 39 F.3d 1021, 1026 (9th Cir. 1994) ("Denton is an exception to the general rule that a district court must accept factual allegations as true."). Here, "a finding of factual frivolousness is appropriate [because] the facts alleged rise to the level of the irrational or the wholly incredible, whether or not there are judicially noticeable facts available to contradict them." Denton, 504 U.S. at 33.

Third, the Complaint fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted. Although Plaintiff labels this case as a "patent infringement" action, the Court is not bound by that characterization. "[W]e look beyond [the complaint's] characterization to the conduct on which the claim is based." Blaxland v. Commonwealth Director of Public Prosecutions, 323 F.3d 1198, 1203-04 (9th Cir. 2003) (citation omitted). The allegations of conduct on which the claim is based are frivolous and do not suggest patent infringement or any other legal theory that would be cognizable in federal court.

Finally, given these deficiencies, leave to amend is not warranted. See Lopez v. Smith, 203 F.3d 1122, 1127 n.8 (9th Cir. 2000) (en banc) ("When a case may be classified as frivolous or malicious, there is, by definition, no merit to the underlying action and so no reason to grant leave to amend."); Lockheed Martin Corp. v. Network Solutions, Inc., 194 F.3d 980, 986 (9th Cir. 1999) (amendment was futile where there was no cause of action); Huffman v. Smith, 172 F.2d 129, 130 (9th Cir. 1949) (explaining that the in forma pauperis statute permits a federal court to refuse commencement of an action "if it appear that the applicant has no cause of action"). Thus, the Complaint is dismissed without leave to amend, and the action is dismissed with prejudice.

When screening a complaint under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, the Court must identify cognizable claims and dismiss claims that are frivolous, malicious, fail to state a claim on which relief may be granted or seek monetary relief from a defendant who is immune from such relief. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2). Dismissal for failure to state a claim under § 1915(e)(2) incorporates the standard for failure to state a claim under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 12(b)(6). Watson v. Carter, 668 F.3d 1108, 1112 (9th Cir. 2012). To survive § 1915 review, a complaint must “contain sufficient factual matter, accepted as true, to state a claim to relief that is plausible on its face.” Ashcroft v. Iqbal, 556 U.S. 662, 678 (2009). The court liberally construes pro se complaints and may only dismiss them “if it appears beyond doubt that the plaintiff can prove no set of facts in support of his claim which would entitle him to relief.” Nordstrom v. Ryan, 762 F.3d 903, 908 (9th Cir. 2014).

In this case, Plaintiff appears to assert that “Mozilla Foundation” has, for the past four years, not allowed him to use the Internet because the Firefox browser “corrupt[s] and shut[s] off [his] personal devices.” (Dkt. 1.) He claims that, despite being indigent and unhoused, he has “285 personal devices, 50 laptops, 50 tablets, 50 chromebooks.” (Id. at 4.) According to Plaintiff, this has made it impossible for him to find a job. (Id.)

Plaintiff’s allegations are fanciful and frivolous. Plaintiff asserts that Defendant uses “Augmented Reality,” which “actively makes a connection with [his] retina. No two are the same. No matter where [Plaintiff is] they ID [him] from any device anywhere. In less than 5 seconds [they] shut off and crash [his] devices.” (Id. at 5.) The relief he seeks from the Court is to “share the same harsh unfair unacceptable condition to them.” (Id.) Because Plaintiff’s claim is frivolous and fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted, his case must be DISMISSED. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2); Anderson v. Sy, 486 F. App’x 644 (9th Cir. 2012) (“The district court properly dismissed Anderson’s action as frivolous because the complaint contains indecipherable facts and unsupported legal assertions.”). “Dismissals on these grounds are often made sua sponte prior to the issuance of process, so as to spare prospective defendants the inconvenience and expense of answering such complaints.” Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324 (1989) (internal citation omitted).

II. Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

The Foundation has taken 4 years of my life that I can't get back not allowing me to live my life or go about my daily routine, because they are too busy controlling it.

Multiple jobs offered to me since the beginning of Covid-19, they block HR department links, corrupt my devices then shut them down. This is all a game to them, these people should not be allowed to have this much control over a person and their day to day life.
